New-Dork Daily Tribune

THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1863.

NEWS OF THE DAY. THE WAR.

-The excitement consequent upon the great Copperhead Riot is rapidly diminishing. Preparations who seek to conciliate favor with insurgents by are made that inspire confidence in the supremacy of feeling was rapidly increasing. The mob, at that a cowardly concession which he publicly denies time, had degenerated into gange of robbers whose having made. only object was theft; there was, apparently, no head, leader, or director of the affair. To want of rioters to several large printing establishments purpose was added the physical prostration conse- with orders that they should be closed, and quent upon more than two days of ceaseless exerthose orders were obeyed! The public will be tion; so that one might reasonably suppose that the at a loss whether most to admire the insolence back of the miniature Rebellion was broken, and of the mob or the pusillanimity of the prothat this rear-guard of Lee's army was fast becoming prietors who yielded to their threats of vio-

British pirate Florida on the 6th of June captured and we believe similar notices have been Beitish pirate Florida on the 6th of June captured and we believe similar recorded. Do and burned the ship Southern Cross from Buena sent in many more cases than are recorded. Do the men who thus surrender their rights, not to the men the men who thus surrender their rights, not to the men the men who thus surrender their rights, not to the men the of Mystic, Conn., from Mazalan for Falmouth, grace to themselves and the cify, they aid directly with logwood, silver bars, and 30 taus of silver ore and materially the plans of the mob, by turning "malignant" attack—we cannot, even now, asylum destroyed, families made fatherless to a distinction with a difference? the bars, worth $500,000, were taken, the ore away their own workmen and leaving them to comprehend. Most certainly, we never till support, and parents remunerated for the sunk with the ship; on the 27th, captured the schooner B. H. Hill of Previncetown. Most of the crews of these ships were brought home by the brig sesses at least audaucity enough to control the men of a general draft, which we heard him make into the account. Beside all this, two millions Henrietta from Bermuda.

when the question of attack was freely discussed, but for the class to which they belong, and for wrong, by the evidence of one whom most of Jen. Davis on the Conscription act All the Generals assembled were in payor of an immediate attack, except Gens. Sedgwick, Slocam, at this moment fails to defend his own rights, credible authority. Sykes, and French. Gen. Meade bimself was in helps to sperifice those of the whole community. favor of active operations; but finding his corps commanders equally divised, he heritated to give the order, and the Rebel army was allowed to make

-About the last of June, a force of Rebels under-

GENERAL NEWS.

One nugget was taken out of Humboldt Ditch, immediately assigned to duty." Canon City, weighing $120. It is also ascertained that the silver region of Washoe, Novada, extends into south-eastern Oregon.

-We have via San Francisco, dates from Hong Kong to May 30, from Shanghae to May 22, and from Japan to May 14. The British troops had left Shangbae for Japan. An attack upon the foreign rebellion and stimulate the rioters to persist settlement by a large Japanese force was anticipated, in their mad career of pillage, arson, and muraud business was consequently entirely suspended. It is feared that the ship Ringleader, which sailed from HongKong for San Francisco with a load of rection which has lighted devastating fires all over Chinese passengers, is lost.

news is the appointment of a provisional governof the press has been abolished.

-Our dispatches give information of something like a riot in Boston, and in some smaller places. failing cause of their Southern allies. It is no When this movement shall be fully understood, the sudden thing, no mere passionate resistance to people will wonder at the danger they have escaped, the draft, but a concocted plan to begin ordinance, appropriating $2,500,000 to pay the $300 resistance to the Government which should exemption for men drafted.

f Tureday, and there was a decided advance The business was exceedingly, light, howcaused a decline of 324 $\psi$ cent in gold. The market opened at 130, but by 1 p. m. declined to 125\frac{1}{2}, but afterward recoverine of 324 P cent in gold. The market opened the draft, which were circulated on Tuesday, but he went to Long Branch only to return seemed to us to deserve no attention. We Government can be so short-sighted as to sur-full headway. render its authority at the dictation of a mob; to acknowledge itself unable to cope with the insurgents of a single city, so long as it continnes its efforts to subdue the insurrectionary States of the South. But since the statement mour, we notice it to say that it ought to be authoritatively contradicted. . The suspicion of such an imbecility was damaging to the Government; the semi-official assertion of it is an importinence so shameless that it is impossible to suppose it will not be promptly rebuked by the President, whose courage and whose capacity to administer his office in a moment of grave public peril are thus mischievously called in question.

elsewhere, declaring the report that the Gov. not be put under martial law, and that the repair forthwith to their respective places of scores; remained at his work till dinner-time; themselves for a battle. This was soon offered ernment had ordered the draft to be suspended, whole authority for the suppression of riot mustering; and at each take an oath to stand then walked deliberately through the crowd to Our artillery opened upon them and soon put them utterly unfounded. With the sincerest delight we learn that the President said last evening, in Law any rioter may go unwhipt of justice, murder, at whatever cost. reply to inquiries, that his purpose was to Enwhen tried before such a Judge as McCunn.

This City and its suburbs number among guise. He prevented the arming of THE PORCE THE DRAFT UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES. Without Martial Law the riot may run its course their population not less than One Hundred TRIBUNE office until after the assault upon, The honor of the Nation and the dignity of and be regulated finally into an organized op-The honor of the Nation and the dignity of position to the Government. The incapacity —thieves, burglars, swindlers, blacklegs, trafthen he thought the time had come for destrewn along the road.

The dignity of the military head of this department, and fickers in iniquity and panders to lust. These cisive measures; and the next morning (Tueston to the Government) and the dignity of the military head of this department, and fickers in iniquity and panders to lust. These rificed by any other determination, and though the fatal indecision of the Chief Magistrate of are usually kept within endurable bounds by day) he devoted mainly to aiding to put it in the gunboats saved the whole of the black troops. we have steadily refused to credit the assertion the city, are permitting power to lapse into their consciousness that a single policeman fighting trim; coming again openly by car down of the disloyal papers and of Gov. Seymour, of the hands of the Governor, and his organs with his baton represents Authority, Order, town, walking from the car through the crowd whom they are the organs, we now heartily thank the President for the prompt announces.

The state of the prompt announces that these results may follow. Will the sober, virtuous, upright, thrifty persons whose to 4 P. M., when he walked away unthank the President for the prompt announce—ment of his resolution. Traitors at the North they not give us a military commander the begin to comprehend that this Government who is not, like Gen. Weel, increase, sympathies, and instincts are all on the President for the prompt announce—Government be warned in time? Will interests, sympathies, and instincts are all on the side of the Law and its upholders. The
the side of the Law and its upholders. The
the side of the Law and its upholders. The
the side of the Law and its upholders. The call begin to comprehend that this Government who is not, like Gen. Weel, increases venture to appear thank the President for the prompt announce—Government be warned in time? Will
the side of the Law and its upholders. The
the side of the Law and its upholders. The call begin to comprehend that this Government who is not, like Gen. Weel, increases venture to appear thank the President for the prompt announce—Government be warned in time? Will
the side of the Law and its upholders. The
the side of the Law and its upholders. The
call begin to comprehend that this Government
who is not, like Gen. Weel, increases venture to appear the People will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will stand by the Govern-time to talk of State rights and official cry which will be compared to the crystal crysta ment spite of the efforts of Copperhead fate. It is to be met only with that courage-depraved than themselves. The "No-Popery" to be back at his post in good season this presses, of murderous mobs, and of Governors ous statesmanship which saves nations, which riots in London eighty years ago were first morning. He may be murdered, as The World who openly proclaim their friendship and affil- brooks no delay, is deceived by ne specious incited by bigots and zealots; but they were threatens, but he does not expect to be fright. The President Declines to Successful iation with the scoundrels composing them, and professing to have extorted from the President

Deputations were sent yesterday by the lence. Accounts of some of these shameful -By an arrival from Bermuda, we learn that the occurrences will be found in other columns, letter which we transfer to our columns this

A MOUNTED PATROL.

We have received the following suggestion from the Headquarters of the Department of took to surprise and capture a tew negro troops at Goodrich's Landing, on the Mississippi. Our men importance in the present disturbed condition at Young's Point got wind of it, and with one or two of the city that the streets should be properly gunboats gave the Rebels a whipping, driving them patrolled, that speedy information may be thus beyond Tensas River, and recognizing all the ne-obtained of the first signs of gatherings of gross they were endeavoring to run off. disaffected persons. To this end, the sons of disaffected persons. To this end, the sons of gentlemen, merchants, and others who own or -The General Land-Office has received official can control the use of horses for the purpose, news confirming the report of the discovery and the are invited to report, mounted, to the senior successful working of rich veins of gold in Oregon. cavalry officer in command at Union Square. The mines along John Day River are yielding two All who are willing to contribute their assisthundred to two hundred and fifty dollars per week. ance to this object will be gladly accepted and

We print in other columns again, this morn ing, articles from the insurrectionary journals, which are doing their utmost to foment the the city, has cost already many lives, sacrificed -By an arrival from Havana, we have dates from millions of property, compelled the occupants of and has spread dismay all over the country. No Archbishop of Mexico, and Gen. Salas. The liberty acknowledgment could be more open and bold erately planned this outbreak in favor of the -Both Boards of the Common Council passed an by what should seem a riot an organized compel it to end the war and accept any terms -The Stock market recovered yesterday morning of peace that the Jeff. Davis Confederacy may condescend to grant. On Saturday, said Gov. a tag share her. The bard solid at the morning session Seymour in his speech on Tuesday from the of the Board. The Board adjourned at an early hour with City Hall steps to his "friends," the incendiasome symptoms of confusion, as reports came that Wall ries, thieves and murderers, who even then street was about to receive a vait from the rioters. The marhet was strong however. The market was lower for the share were sacking dwelling-bouses, and slaughtering the riot had nearly most defenceless, and the most powerless class ceased, there was quite a raily, and favortic stocks were deceledly higher. No Second Board or 4 p. m. call was held. among us—"on Saturday," said Gov. Seymour, Never have we known such extreme duliness in freights as "I sent the Adjutant-General to Washington now exists; business is completely suspended, and we only to urge its (the Draft's) postponement." On Satbear of an engagement of 1,000 bbis. Flour to Antwerp, at 3s. urday! Two days before the outbreak! What Money continues very easy at unchanged rates, the range being from 5270., but very little is doing on account of the general unsettled condition of business. The capture of Port Hudson, and reports that Gen. Lee's retreat was a ront. But did he go to the civil and military authorities to warn them of what was coming? Did ed and closed at 127. Sterling exchange sold at 1424 early in the use his own power as Chief Magistrate of the day, but afterward fell to 1415, and closed at 142. The numerous reports of a suspension of the instant? He did none of these thingsto the burning and maddened city on Tues-

And the speeches and proclamations of the him. We ask but justice. Governor are in temper identical-though differing, of course, in official language-with his organs. The rioters are his "friends;" he assures them in a proclamation of his belief corps, so much ridiculed at the time of its was no truth in this; but it did not seem is now made on the authority of Gov. Sey- that "apprehensions of injustice" have incited incipient organization. Twenty thousand citithem to violence. What language is this for zens, duly enrolled, mustered, drilled, to turn The World returned to the charge, in an artithe Chief Magistrate of a State to men engaged out whenever the peace of our City is men- cle specially intended to incite the mob to in such devastation and such murders as this aced, and second the efforts of our admirable murder Republican Editors, saying:

enemies.

ARCHBISHOP HUGHES.

In an article published on Tuesday morning, wherein we aimed to show the wanton wicktating our City, we said:

"The first man we ever heard advecate a general conscription for the prosecution of the war for the Unice was Archbishop Hughes, in his sermon directly after his last return from Europe last year. He condemned the reliance on voluniteering as husardous, and as placing too large a share of the burden on the generous and public spirited, urging that, those the obligation to serve rested equally on all, the hardlity or risk should be apportioned accordingly."

Taking this paragraph as his text, the ArchWhen all these troubles are over bishop has put his name to a most remarkable morning. It opens thus:

be won over to a side which shows that it pos- now imagined that the Archbishop's suggestion maiming of children, are all to be brought whom these workmen have heretofore been accust from his own Cathedral pulpit, was a matter and a half appropriated by the Common -With regard to Lee's escape, it is said that Gen. tomed to look up to with a certain respect. This of reproach—on the contrary, we deemed it Council to appears the passions of a demoniate Meade held a council of war on Saturday and Suntimidity of their employers may well destroy day evening, coneisting of his corps commanders, the regard of their men not merely for them, when the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of attendance to the draft was bill of costs which a few secret emissaries of the question of a traft was below that the question of but for the class to which they belong, and for wrong, by the evidence of one whom most of Jeff. Davis have run up for us. The $300 responds: I did not condemn rolunteering." As riotous assemblages, and go to their homes, for National thanksgiving praise, and prayer, and I the State authorities have had ample time to we never said he did, and as what he denies and then we would listen to their grievances, is totally different from what we affirmed, we if they have any, and remedy them. see no occasion for futher remark on this point. Here is what the Archbishop now gives as what he did say on this bead in his sermon: What he did say but this section.

'Volunteers have been appeared to in advance of the draft, as I understand; but for my own part, if I had a voice in the councils of the country, I would say, let volunteering continue. If the three hundred thousand on your list be not enough this week near week make a draft of three hundred thousand more. It is not cruel—this is mercy, this is humanity. Anything that will put en end to this described with blood the whole surface of the country, that will be

The Archbishop now says:

" I did not recommend a coercive conscrip-

If a draft is not a coercine conscription, then Men may volunteer for the war, and go because they choose to, or be drafted and go because it is required of them by competent authority. If there be a middle course—a third way of raising troops by non-"ceretive third way of raising troops by non-"ceretive fault of Gen. Meade as the justification of the head of the United States to be affixed.

Divine Will back to the period enjoyment of Chronical and fraternal peace.

In witcose whereof I have hereounte set my hand and caused the seat of the United States to be affixed.

The disloyal press of this city seizes on the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they have the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One thousand eight hundred one they are four Lord One come to understand it.

-The Archbishop further says:

cessant attacks which we have for years pro- ing as to be irresistible. In the precution and the earliest favorable termination of till all the facts are known. If it shall prove he received a communication from Gen. Dennis, the War. And if it be true that we have been that Gen. Meade erred only in deference to bin that our black troops had been attacked at Good. in the "habit of favoring" the Archbishop with the opinion of his commanders against a battle, rich's Landing, and that the Rebels were getting the of building our batteries, in which two 100-pounds rich's Landing, and that the Rebels were getting the "malignant articles," our readers must of all we shall still deem that a fault to be more upper hand of them.

any coercive conscription that shall he use his own power as Chief Magistrate of the Government, whatever Government it will be, to plead the State to avert this dire calamity by having in readiness a sufficient force to quell it on the instant? He did none of these things—the instant? He did none of these things—to take his share in the contest. Then it will be, to plead with the people and call on them to come forward and call with the people and call on them to come forward and call them; and the foreign and call of them the people, to rise and ask the Government to draft them; and those the contest of the people and call on them to come forward and call the call them to come forward and call them to come forward and the Archbishop's letter in full, and then say if Virginia soil. did not and do not believe that the National day morning when the insurrection was under our paragraph of Tuesday in any manner assailed him, or in any respect misrepresented in such devastation and such murders as this city has been given over to for the last three days! What have the hanging and stamping to death of negroes, what the sacking of private houses, what the sacking of private houses, what the pillaging of jewelry and our City from burning diagrace and of warehouses, to do with the draft?

Let loyal people consider these facts, and we trust the Mayor's recommendation will be considered to the property and we trust the Mayor's recommendation will be considered to the last three beneaugh saying:

"It night have been supposed that the lowering approach of the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the lowering approach of the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the lowering approach of the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the lowering approach of the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the lowering approach of the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the lowering approach the three been in the rude vengeance that have been supposed that the been admit approach that the rude of the rude vengeance that have been supposed th mark the two points on which the insurrec- be promptly acceeded to. Let there be at then, the Editor of THE TRIBUNE came to his our forces. The above was in type when we re- tionary journals urge in common, and evidently least one rendezvous in each Ward; let all office on Monday morning at 9 o'clock, walk-

Will the sober, virtuous, upright, thrifty persons whose to 4 P. M., when he walked away un-and on any pretense, er none.

this City can keep its own ruffianism in from that quarter. edness and criminality of the riots then devas- reasonable subjection to Authority and Law. The action of the People who have either character or property to lose must decide the question. Let us be sure that it is now set-

THE BILL OF COSTS.

riots. The reckoning will be a pretty one to presence. worked no real harm upon the laboring men, for the tees of the rich pay substitutes to go Permit me to request of you the insertion of a few remarks in The Heraid, which may throw tight upon the subject which Mr. Greeley mirrepresents and off cits to manuferstand. He says that I condemned the lectatice upon the burdens on the generous and public-spirited, origing that or risk should be apportioned accordingly. It is in the limitation of the process of the rich pay substitutes to go for the poor. There was no pressing need, therefore, for the swift passage of the appropriation ordinance yesterday. If it were found a forthight hence that our poorer classes were in real need of municipal help, that would the burdens on the generous and public-spirited, arging that due the obligation to serve rested equally on all, the hability or risk should be appertioned secondary.\(^1\) I did not condenn volunteering.\(^2\) I did not condenn volunteering.\(^2\) I did not recommend a coercive conscription, but that he people of the North, who stend by the Federal Government, should demand conscription by their own voluntary heritage. The main object of my remarks on two considering regard to by Mr. Greeley was to bring the war test speedy not be their properties in the common of the federal of the contry and a peaceful community was throttled by it, and a peaceful community was throttled by it, it was not be excalable to strip the most merififal in its results, should properly permanently have been the proper time to act. But when the city was possessed by an infuriate mob, and a peaceful community was throttled by it, and a peaceful community was throttled by it, it was not been accorded not without sucrifice of life, limb, health and liberty, incurred by brave, patriotic and loyal citizens.

Domestic affliction in every part of the country follows in the brain of these fearfal bereavements. It is meet and right to recognize and confess the presence of the Almighty Father, and the power of the whole peope. They should have treated these disturbers of the stand object is a regard the interests of the contry a large. My remarks were not intended for the control of the should have treated these disturbers of the should have treated these of the such that the such have a specific to the should have treated these disturbers of the such that the such have treated these of the such have treated the such that the such have treated

GEN. MEADE'S DELAY.

Dispatches received yesterday represent that Gen. Meade was himself in favor of attacking Holy Spirit to subdue the anger which has pro- Wadsworth, is refused. the Rebel army while it was yet north of the duced and so long sustained a needless and cruel Potomac, but yielded to the adverse opinions of rebellion; to change the hearts of the insurgents; four of his corps commanders. At a moment to guide the counsels of the Government with wiswhen he must regret more keenly than dom adequate to so great a national emergency, and any one else can, his disastrous mistake, to visit with tender care and consolution, throughout is necessary, but it is our duty to declare the through the vicissitudes of marches, voyages, battles strength of the popular disappointment, and to we are in fault as to the meaning of the word.

Men may volunteer for the War, and go bethey choose to, or be drafted and go be-third way of raising troops by non-"coercive fault of Gen. Meade as the justification of such three and of the independence of der of Gen. McClellan, by which the half-beater Rebel army was suffered to escape after the It may be that my critics—Greeley of THE TRIBUNE."

Rebel army was suffered to escape after the ... are correct to their plew of humanity, in descring battle of Antietam. We fail to see how two it the correlation to the co -We leave others to judge of the truth and wrongs make a right. On McClellan's imbecandor of this imputation, in view of the invoked by advocating the most vigorous prose- sent case we partially suspend judgment the world best know it, and give judgment leniently judged than its reverse; than the accordingly.

The Archbishop indicates his repugnance to which all his Generals and all his army expected and besought him to fight. But be the Brigade without delay to the scene of action, Our total loss is only one hundred and fifty. We measure of this error greater or less, it shall and remain there until everything was quiet. The almost succeeded in taking Fort Wagner, the as-"expose the poor to the dangers of battle, and leave the wealthy to become wealthisr in their quiet homes."

This is what he said on this aspect of the case in his Sermon, as now quoted by himself:

"Then every man on the continent, rich or poor, will asse to take his share in the contest. Then it will not be left with the people and call on them to come forward and ask them of the grain and the term of the grain and that it can no longer afford to experiment, whatever Government it will be, to plead with the people and call on them to come forward and ask then folder for them it will be to plead with the people and call on them to come forward and ask then folder for the secondary of merit, and Gen. Meade has still the opportor of the people and call on them to come forward and ask then Government to draft them; and that it can no longer afford to experiment with incompetence, and educate inexperiment with the people and call on them to come forward and ask then fold-pieces, but were much surprised to the with shrappel, which fell among them and killed and wounded a number of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the bindermost vessel of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the bindermost vessel of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the bindermost vessel of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the bindermost vessel of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the bindermost vessel of the brigade, the John Haines, arrived there as the Rebels were esting fire to the arrived there as the Re -We ask the intelligent and impartial to read to repair his error and annihilate his enemy on the result was a retreat on the part of the Rebels,

The World on Tuesday blazoned "the lie hurried to the scene of action. The commander by gradual approaches by the land force, let along with circumstance" that the Editor of THE soon discovered the Rebels setting fire to the plants- the gun-boats, which are cooperating efficiently. TRIBUNE had not dered to enter his own office tions, and commenced shelling them. This he kept After the fall of Fort Wagner, Cummings Point "HOME GUARDS."

on Monday, but had spent the day at a resour City has at length felt the need of this on Monday, but had spent the day at a resriver bank, the Rebels meantime setting fire to from Morris Island. It may, however, take two of worth while to contradict it. But yesterday light and with no sort of concealment or dis-means to crush Treason wherever it dares lift by age and infirmities from comprehending and in their true colors only when they have because there were no public conveyances then FROM WASHINGTON. its head, and they will soon be made to believe, if they do not already know, that the People will stand by the Governpower in the hands either of incompetents or more for Popery than for the Equator. Only not to devastate the dwellings of inoffensive let the villainous class feel tolerably sure of people who kindly watched over him in sickimpunity, and they will get up a riot any day ness two years ago, but with whom he has never "boarded" since, and who are nowise The time has come for deciding whether related to him, it will be all the favor he asks

> In the year 1848, during the insurrection in the barricades addressing the people. That was an act of sublime devotion. the great personal influence of Archbishop Hughes could be used to advantage among "his When all these troubles are over and busi- people" by his riding among them and speakness resumes its usual course, we shall have ing to them on their duties. They may respect time to count the costs of these Wood-Brooks him, and would be greatly influenced by his take command of the depot for drafted men to be

> > Governor Seymour, in his proclamation, speaks of the laws of this State, but not of > > The reporters state that every apprehension of a rioter has shown him to be an Irishman.

OUR RECENT VICTORIES.

By the President of the United States -- A

It has pleased Almighty God to hearken to the supplications and prayers of an afflicted people, and to vouchsafe to the Army and the Navy of the United States, on the land and on the sea, victories so signal and so effective as to furnish reasonable grounds for augmented confidence that the union of these States will be maintained, their Constitution pre served and their peace and prosperity permanently preserved; but these victories have been accorded not without sacrifice of life, limb, health and liberty, THE REPORTED SUSPENSION OF THE DRAFT.

condemned the reliance on volunteering." He them to cease from violence, disband their Thursday, the sixth day of August next, as a day City by a mob, the Government is not in fault until invite the people of the United States to assemble show that they cannot quell the disturbance, and on that occasion in their customary places of wor-ship, and, in the forms approved by their own come to the rescue when the State fails to do its conscience, render the homage due to the Divine duty. Hence, the request of several Senators and Majesty for the wonderful things He has done in Representatives to put New-York under martia the nation's behalf, and invoke the influence of His law, and under command of Gen. Butler or Gen we are unwilling to press criticism beyond what the length and breadth of our land, all those who

The Last Rebel Attack on Young's Point-How it was Repulsed-Pursuit of the Rebels. The Navy Department received to-day a comm sication from Rear-Admiral Porter, dated the 2d instant, in which he states that on the 29th of June him that our black troops had been attacked at Good-and the escape of a number of negroes whom they miracle can prevent the capture of Charleston, new had imprisoned. The gunboat Romeo also came up that we have effected a lodgment on Morris Island. the river about this time, and hearing the firing. The fort that remains untaken can surely be reduced everything as they went along.

The result was an almost total destruction of who were employed in working the Government plantations. Gen. Ellet landed his ferces, and in the Rebels propose to retaliate for the execution company with a black brigade proceeded to chase after conviction, of two of their spies by Gen. Bers the Rebels, who were making a hasty retreat, when side, will be followed by the death of two Rebels they found there was a force after them. It was officers of a much higher grade, now in our hands. no part of their system to fight. They only came to plunder and carry off negroes. Gen. Ellet found

He pursued them as far as the Tensa River, where ceived the dispatch from Washington, printed with preconcerted action-that the city shall who stand by Liberty, Order and Property ing to it from a Harlem car in plain sight of they had crossed, burned the bridge and intrenched shall be put in the Governor's hands. Is the unflinchingly by the constituted authorities and result aimed at understood? Without Martial put down insurrection, devastation, arson and carriage thence to his lodging, in broad daydeemed it proper not to pursue the Rebels much further. He sent 200 infantry across the bayou, and found that the Rebels were retreating to Delhi, leav-

The unexpected recuforcement of the brigade and But the blacks will always be in danger so long as they remain in such small numbers. who made the attack are the same that attacked Milliken's Bend. They are a half-starved and naked

The Reported Suspension of the Draft.

HOW LEE WAS ALLOWED TO ESCAPE

THE SURRENDER OF PORT HUDSON.

WAR GAZETTE-OFFICIAL

GEN. DOUBLEDAY TRANSFERRED TO A DEAPT DEPOT. Gen. Doubleday has been relieved from his command in the Army of the Potomac and ordered to established at Buffalo, N. Y. DISMISSED FOR UTTERING DISLOTAL SENTIMENTS.

By direction of the President, Col. W. J. Caldwell, 81st Regiment Indiana Volunteers, has been dismissed for attering disloyal sentiments.
THE ARMY RETIRING BOARD TO MEET IN NEW-YORK.

An Army Retiring Board has been ordered to convene in New-York City during the present week, for the examination of such officers as may be moned before it. Gen. McDowell, Adjt.-Gen. Thomas, and Inspector-Gen. Sackett are member SICK OFFICERS TO BE EXAMINED

Hereafter, all officers of the Regular Army, about on surgeon's certificate of sickness will be required to present themselves before an Examining Board, two of which will be established, one at Annapolis Md., and the other at Columbus, Onio. The Board will report on the cause and probable duration of the sickness, and this report will determine whether the officer shall be continued on the active list or be ordered before the Army Retiring Board. Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

The report that the Government has ordered the Domestic affliction in every part of the country draft to be suspended in New-York city is utterly follows in the brain of these fearful bereavements. President said that his purpose was to enforce the draft under all circumstances, and that dispatches were sent to New-York hat evening to this effect.

The President is also reported to have said that if the enforcement of the draft is stopped in New-York

RUMOR OF IMPORTANT MILITARY CHANGE. It is rumored here to-day that Gen. Heintzelmi will go to New-York to command the troops there,

THE ESCAPE OF LEE. The success of Gen. Lee in escaping across the Potomac from before a largely superior force, is at-tributed in high military circles here to the fact,

A corrent rumor that Gen. Halleck forbade the attack is utterly unfounded. All the influence from Washington, at least during the last three days bafore Lee's crossing was effected, urged an attack. THE SURRENDER OF PORT HUDSON. Official dispatches from Gen. Banks have bee received confirming the glorious news of the surren der of Port Hudson, on the 8th of July, as a conse quence of the fall of Vicksburg. Twelve thousand prisoners were taken.

THE ATTACK ON CHARLESTON.

miral Dahlgren have been received, giving full particulars of the successful attack on Morris Island batteries before daylight on the morning of Friday The Rebels, who might have interrupted the work three weeks to effect the full purpose of the attack The result was an almost total destruction of houses and properly along the river in that vicinity. The Rebels carried off about 1,200 negroes Jeff. Davis has been officially notified that cution of Captains Sawyer and Flinn, upon whom

Maj.-Gen. Dix has been ordered to daty in the City of New-York.

PURSUIT OF THE BEBELS IN VIR. GINIA.

Attack on the Bear Guard. HEADQUARTERS, ARRY OF THE FOTOMAG. | WHONESDAY, July 15, 1863. | Our Cavalry overtook, and engaged the enemy! rear this forenoon, near Charlestown, and captured about 100 prisoners. All is quiet to-night. Our army changed its position to-day.

Morgan's Movements in Ohio. Morgan reached Georgetown, Brown Co., Onio at midnight. He is pretty well hemmed in, and his chances of escape are very slight. Gunboats, and a very large force went up the river yesterday to dis-pute his crossing the Onio River which is too high

A Military Mead. Governor Seymour has devolved upon Brigadies-General J. H. Ludlie the chief command of the military forces engaged in the suppression of the rist.